WELCOME TO NECROPOLIS "CITY OF THE DEAD"

If you have been to Rome or plan to go in the future, there is one tour you do not want to miss. The Scavi Tour is a 90-minute guided tour that takes visitors down into the lowest levels of St. Peter Basilica. This is not the "grotto" area that lies just beneath St. Peter where the monuments, chapels, and tombs of past Popes and Italian dignitaries lie. The Scavi Tour goes down below the grotto to an area known as the "necropolis." In addition to being the site of an ancient pagan and Christian cemetery and burial ground from the 1st century, this is the location of Saint Peter's burial tomb. This is perhaps the most sacred site within Vatican City.

Here at St. Peter, we are currently having Mass below our church as we renovate it. Although we will not be surrounded by the physical remains of saints, every time the Mass is celebrated they are with us in the most real way. This hall too will be made a sacred space when we come together and pray with reverence and devotion to our Lord, Jesus Christ, in the Mass.
