DON'T FORGET TO TURN IN YOUR COMMITMENT CARDS

Each year, our St. Peter parish community takes a special moment to pause, listen, and discern how Jesus is calling us to grow as His disciples. It's an invitation to deepen our relationship with Him by sharing our time, talent, and treasure, living out His call to sacrificial love. Have you taken the time to prayerfully ask Jesus how He wants to receive your love this year?

Last weekend was Commitment Weekend. If you haven't had a chance to complete your Commitment Card yet, you can mail it to the parish, drop it off at the welcome counter, or you can fill it out online at saintpeterlincoln.com. Our goal at St. Peter is to be a true Discipleship Parish—a community noticeably committed to prayer, parish ministry, and generous support. All three are equally vital to living out our faith together.

Returning your card is an important and active way to participate in the life of St. Peter Parish. If you have any questions as you discern, please don't hesitate to contact our parish office. May God bless you abundantly as you prayerfully consider how He's calling you to grow even closer to Him this year.

GODTEENS > LNK YOUTH MINISTRY

St. Peter will be participating with other Lincoln parishes in a joint youth ministry this year. The new group is called LNK Youth Ministry and is open to all high school students across Lincoln. The year begins with the On Fire Bonfire on Sunday, Sept. 7 at 6:30pm at St. Joseph Catholic Church.
